

Marine Coastal Management (DEAT) – Harbour feasibility Study

- Saha International (SA) Pty Ltd has been appointed in conjunction with a global auditing firm to conduct a feasibility study of the 12 proclaimed fishing harbours of South Africa.
- Apart from reviewing the economic potential within the infrastructure of the harbours, Saha International (SA) Pty Ltd will also be investigating the various legislative options in the design of future management structures for each harbour.

Marine and Coastal Management Experience

- Saha International have staff who are experienced in Project Managing a multi-disciplinary team to deliver a cost recovery framework to MCM. Provided progress reports over the 18-month duration of the project.
- Have staff who have coordinated and facilitated 2 weeks of fishing industry stakeholder focus across the whole of the South African coastline.
- Staff experienced in benchmarking best practice from the Australian and new Zealand fisheries management regulatory agencies.
- Saha International was appointed by the Department of Environmental Affairs and Tourism to assist in the financial turnaround of the financial office of MCM.

